ABOUT WOODY'S

Staffed by students

Woody's is led by students and a team of professional support staff. Wherever possible, we hire students to undertake our work. We believe that offering students opportunities to learn hospitality and management skills will reinforce our community at the University of Kent and beyond. Students gain real world work experience, build relationships with co-workers and earn money to help support their studies.

Tailor-made service

We can offer a bespoke, tailor-made catering service for your event and can provide alternative options for people with allergies and intolerances. We also offer vegan, halal, and gluten-free options. Vegetarian meals are included as standard.

Ethically sourced

We buy our products from the National Union of Students' Services Limited (NUSSL) consortium, who have been supplying Students' Unions with ethically sourced, quality products for over 40 years. NUSLL engage with suppliers to ensure they meet student-defined ethical requirements, working with them to improve their practices. This ensures that students' purchasing power is harnessed for social change.

How to order

Browse our offering and drop us an email with what you would like along with relevant information (check out the last page for more help with that). Looking for something bespoke? Then just drop us an email and we will let you know how we can best accommodate you.

We can provide a bespoke catering service for groups of over 30 people, offering a personalised dining experience tailored to your unique needs.

Whether you're hosting a corporate event, social occasion, wedding reception, or private celebration, our team will work closely with you to craft a menu and service that perfectly reflects your requests. We are also happy to provide alternatives for individuals with specific allergies and intolerances.

HOW TO ORDER

Give us a call or drop us an email

Reach out to our friendly staff either by phone on 01227 824 221 or by email woodys@ksu.co.uk.

We'll ask for the following information:

- Your name
- Contact email
- Date of your event
- Start and end time of your event
- Location – Are you looking to utilise the full restaurant area, our outdoor patio or upstairs function room and roof top terrace? Not sure? No worries, let us know a bit about your event and we can advise what might be best.
- Number of guests
- PO number for payment if relevant (payment won't be made until after the event)
- Details of any allergies or dietary requirements.

A few things to note

All student bookings will receive a 20% discount on their orders.

All catering is subject to VAT. For larger catering events, there may be extra staff costs involved. We'll be able to advise when we know more about your event.

Where possible, we require at least 5 working days on catering bookings (for smaller bookings we may be able to accommodate you after this time, depending on capacity).

If you require a bespoke catering service, or you have any questions, please contact us via the email (woodys@ksu.co.uk) and a member of our team will be in touch.

We look forward to serving you!

The Woody's Team.
